They reveal the heart of Jesus in a unique way. This is unquestionably the Lord's Prayer. The prayer that we often refer to as the Lord's Prayer (Matt. 6:9-13) would better be called The Disciple's Prayer because it reveals the depth of human helplessness. In the prayer of Jesus in John 17, recorded by John, it reveals the height of divine sufficiency. Before Jesus faced the cross, he ...

Being the Answer to Jesus' Prayer: A Study of John 17

His heart is the same, His power is the same, but his method is different. Instead of Jesus Christ living in one human body on earth as He did 2000 years ago, He sent the Holy Spirit to live in each one of us who have trusted Him as our Lord and Savior.
